First Announcement

Dear colleagues,

This is to announce the

14th International Congress on Amino Acids, Peptides and Proteins
August 3-7, 2015, Vienna, Austria

We would be happy to have your participation and contribution.

Please submit the title of your presentation and authors' names and affiliation until July 31st 2014

You will receive more information as soon as the homepage is constructed by the second announcement.

Sections on Amino Acids, Peptides and Proteins to be held at the meeting are as follows (alphabetical order):

Biological and Medical Sciences:

Food Chemistry
Genetics and Epigenetics
Medicine and Medicinal Chemistry
Metabolism and inborn errors
Microbiology
Neurochemistry
Neurodegenerative disease including a whole day session on Alzheimer's disease
Neuroscience (behaviour and cognitive functions, excitatory / inhibitory amino acids, receptors, channels and transporters in the brain)
Nutrition
Pharmacology and Pharmaceutical Chemistry
Physiology
Redox System and free radicals
Sports and Exercise
Systems Biology
Taurine
Toxicology

Chemical Sciences:

Amino Acids
Analysis
Basic Chemistry
Bioinformatics
Biosynthesis
Environmental Sciences
Plant Amino Acids
Polyamines
Posttranslational modifications (including phosphorylation etc.)
Proteomics
Protein Structure
Synthesis

Please note that abstracts will be published in our traditional journal that is appearing now for about 23 years:

Amino Acids (Springer publishers, Impact Factor 3.9; editor-in-chief: G.Lubec, Vienna, Austria),

The forum for Amino Acid and Protein Research, and full manuscripts will be peer reviewed and published in separate issues linked to the individual sections.

The homepage is currently under construction and basic information will be put into the web by early August of this year (www.meduniwien.ac.at/icaap)

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Gert Lubec
Vienna, May 15th, 2014
