Tentative Programme

- Biological roles of Polyamines
- Transport and metabolism of Biogenic Amines
- Biogenic Amines and amine oxidases
- Polyamines and transglutaminases
- Polyamines in plants
- Pathophysiological functions of Polyamines
- Polyamines in cell growth and differentiation
- Role of Polyamines in epigenetic gene regulation
- Biogenic Amines: derivatives and analogues

GENERAL INFORMATION

Letter of invitation

If required, the Organizing Committee will mail an invitation letter for all the participants to the Conference.

The invitation letter does not imply any commitment from the organizers to provide financial supports. It is only aimed to help the scientist to get funds from their institutions or a Visa.

VISA

Passport and Visa information: please check with your travel agent or Italian Embassy/Consulate if you're required an entry Visa to Italy.

Congress Venue

The symposium will be held at Hotel Margherita, in the mountain resort of Alberè di Tenna (Trento).

How to reach the Hotel:

-by air: to Verona, Milano or Bologna and from there by train to Trento and from Trento to Pergine.

-by train: to Trento and from Trento to Pergine.

In both cases the organizing secretary has to be informed about the time of the arrival to Pergine. You will be picked up at the railway station.

-by car: "autostrada del Brennero" to Trento. From Trento follow the signals to Padova; after about 15 km, turn left at the signpost Ischia-Alberè-Tenna. After about 2 km, in the middle of woods, on the left, you will see the Hotel Margherita.

The symposium will be organized in morning and afternoon sessions with oral communications (PPT) and poster presentations. Official languages will be English and Italian, but all the descriptions in PPT and posters have to be in English. Active participants are invited to send an abstract (in English maximum one page A4 format) on-line in MS Word format, to be reproduced as such.

Please fill in the registration form and send it together with the abstract, to Prof. Antonio Toninello, at the address indicated, not later than July 10, 2011.

Registration fee:

Active participants:	490 €
Accompanying persons:	440 €
Young investigators/students (Post Docs, PhD students etc)	400 €

After July 10, 2011 the registration fee will be increased by 25 €.

The registration fee has to be paid by bank wire transfer to:
Antonio Toninello – Maria Anglica Grillo. International Congress on Biogenic Amines
Cassa di Risparmio di Padova e Rovigo
Filiale Via G. Belzoni 1-35121 PADOVA
IBAN: IT 32 HO62 2512 1071 0000 0004 678
